

March 2026

From the desk of WPPC-GA President Nancy Jester

Hello, Georgia Parents!

I know everyone is excited for Spring Break and Plebe Parent Weekend. I am looking forward to picking up my Cadet from the airport this evening. I can't wait to see the photos and hear about how Georgia's Plebe parents enjoy this weekend. My PPW was in 2023, and it was amazing! It was great fun to watch the parade, go to class, and attend the banquet in Washington Hall. Touring the Uniform Factory was fascinating and one of my favorite experiences. Plebe Parents – please let us hear from you! Send us your photos and tell us about your trip (email comms@wppc-ga.org).

The semester goes fast after Spring Break. Does your Cadet have their summer schedule set? My Cadet just received his schedule this week. It's nice to know what he will be doing and when we can see him. The summer always reinforces, for me, the different paths our sons and daughters have taken. While their peers are home, working summer jobs and internships, or vacationing, our cadets keep right on going with field training exercises, AIADs, military schools, leadership details, and more. The 47-month journey marches on.

Enjoy Spring Break, and as always, stay in touch. We love hearing about our Georgia Cadets and all they are doing. Please send those PPW and spring break photos and stories our way. Thank you for supporting our Club, our families, and our Cadets.

Beast Basics Call - May 17

The West Point Parents' Club of Georgia will host our Beast Basics Zoom Call for the parents of the Class of 2030. It's at 7 p.m. on Sunday, May 17.

We've put together a panel of parents with great experience to help guide plebe families through what to expect.

Sandra Stewart: Sandra and Chip Stewart (USMA class of 1993, who served for 23 years) have two children and live in Dunwoody, GA. Their son Luka is a plebe in C-3 this year.

Holly Capp: Holly and Jac Capp live in McDonough, GA. They are parents to four kids, two of whom have attended West Point. Their son graduated in 2020 and now serves as a captain in Air Defense at Fort Cervezas. Their daughter is a plebe in E-1.

Alec Lee: Alec and Melissa Lee live in Parker, Colorado. Jason, their only son, is a plebe in C-2 this year. A graduate and long-time field force representative, Alec is the author of "The Dad's Guide to West Point."

Hail & Farewell
Sunday, June 7 at 1:30 p.m.
Maggiano's Little Italy Perimeter

Georgia families of the incoming Class of 2030 and graduating Class of 2026 are invited to join us for our Hail & Farewell Celebration on June 7, at 1:30 p.m. at Maggiano's Little Italy Perimeter.

We will welcome the incoming class and honor our graduating cadets. Enjoy lunch, meet new families, and visit with friends.

Stay tuned for more details and a link to RSVP.

Post Night at West Point was Feb. 25. Cadets gathered by branch for a draft-style selection of their first Army post and duty assignment, choosing in class-rank order from the remaining billets at installations across the country and around the world.

A Taste of Home Thank you!

Georgia Cadets enjoyed a Taste of Home in early March! And it's all thanks to West Point Parents' Club of Georgia Mom (and incoming Club President) Holly Capp, who flew in, picked up, and handed out 100+ Chick-fil-A sandwiches and SWEET tea.

The Cadets enjoyed some warm Southern hospitality on a cold winter's night. Georgia families are sending our love and support.

A special thanks to parents who donated extra funds for this effort.

The West Point Society of Atlanta hosted a very special Founders Day event on March 21 and welcomed Georgia students who have already been appointed to join the West Point Class of 2030, pictured below.
