

June 2026

From the desk of WPPC-GA President Holly Capp

This month, we have honored our newest graduates and our new Cadet Candidates. We are very excited for both of these groups and their families. Moments like Graduation and R-Day reveal just how unexpectedly brief 47 months can feel. At the end of May, we had 49 Georgia cadets graduate, and at the end of June, we will welcome 42 new Cadet Candidates to their new Rockbound Home (many of them are pictured here during the Governor's Service Academy Sendoff on Wednesday).

These book-end days are monumental and should be celebrated, but there are so many moments in between that both encourage our hearts and make us enormously proud of our cadets. Regardless of where you find yourself today along this journey, I hope that you are filled with gratitude for the sacrifices being made and are looking for ways to honor these exceptional young men and women from our great state of Georgia.

See you soon!
Holly

This is a great time to see friends and meet new families on the day before the "New Cadet Visitation Day." This is when New Cadets will have the opportunity to call family and friends.

Congratulations to the West Point Class of 2026! Here are two of our Georgia grads - 2LT Kate Bacon and 2LT Brendan Brannock. We are so proud of you, and we know you are ready to lead. We'd love to include more grad photos in our next issue.

Email them here: comms@wppc-ga.org.

Hail & Farewell

Thanks to all who could join us for Hail & Farewell on June 7! We had a great time welcoming new Georgia Cadet Candidates in the Class of 2030, saluting the Class of 2026, and hearing from Old Grads.

Rising Firstie Jaxon Jester and 2LT Brendan Brannock (Class of 2026) answered questions and shared insight about their West Point experiences. We also showed our appreciation to outgoing officers Nancy Jester and Kelly Brannock with a special gift.

We'll be there on R-Day!

Class of 2030 parents, please look for the Georgia Parents' Club table in Eisenhower Hall after your 90-second goodbye.

We'll be there to listen and answer questions. We can also share ideas for passing the time until the Oath Ceremony at the end of the day. You've got this! And we'll be there for you. Oh, and please send us your photos for the next newsletter: comms@wppc-ga.org.

Below is a link to a newsletter produced by West Point. It's a helpful guide for R-Day with maps and other resources. The link also makes it easy to subscribe to future updates

R-Day is on the way!

Our totes and handbags are the perfect Summer accessory! Choose your design and Class Motto, and know that you're helping us support our Cadets and their families. Treat yourself - or give as a gift. You can even order 2026 for a grad gift.

For the Class of 2030, you can order today, and we'll ship the bags in the fall — AFTER the Class Motto is revealed during March Back and approved by the class.
